

Project: CRAYON

What is Project: Crayon?

Project: Crayon was created by F&M Bank & Trust in efforts to help to get area elementary schools the supplies they need in the classroom. The Farmers & Merchants Community Foundation was created due to the success of Project: Crayon. The F&M Community Foundation can now partner with corporations to bring larger donations to our schools.

How can I help?

Helping is easy. Purchase a supply and drop them off at any F&M Bank & Trust location. Monetary donations are accepted. We would also like to partner with groups and churches to hold special events.

What Schools have endorsed this project thus far?

All Burlington, West Burlington, and Mediapolis elementary schools have agreed to participate.

Can I specify my donation to a particular school?

Yes. If you are making a monetary donation.

Where do I take my donations?

To any F&M Bank & Trust walk-in or drive-thru locations. They are located in Burlington and West Burlington.

What do the schools need?

Just about any school supply available including crayons, markers, glue, scissors, and more!

Can I give cash instead of items?

Yes. Make checks payable to Project: Crayon and we will buy the school supplies for you.

Is my donation tax deductible?

The Farmers and Merchants Community Foundation is a 501 (c) 3. Please check with your accountant to inquire on the details of what portion of your donation is considered tax deductible.

What is the time frame of Project: Crayon? June 1 - August 12
